Hardware Required for Diamond Cut Grading in Pathum Thani

Diamond cut grading in Pathum Thani requires specialized hardware to accurately assess the proportions, symmetry, and polish of diamonds. The following hardware models are commonly used for this purpose:

1. Sarin Galaxy (Sarin Technologies): This advanced system utilizes laser technology to measure diamond dimensions and angles with high precision, providing detailed cut grade reports.
2. Octee HR (Octee): This compact and portable device combines high-resolution imaging and advanced algorithms to analyze diamond cut quality, offering accurate and reliable grading.
3. M2M DiamondScope (M2M): This handheld instrument employs a patented imaging system to capture multiple diamond views, enabling comprehensive cut assessment and grading.

These hardware devices play a crucial role in diamond cut grading by:

- Measuring diamond dimensions and angles with extreme accuracy
- Analyzing symmetry and polish to identify imperfections and irregularities
- Providing objective and consistent cut grade reports

By utilizing these advanced hardware systems, diamond cutters and graders in Pathum Thani can ensure the highest standards of quality and accuracy in their grading process, resulting in reliable and internationally recognized cut grade reports.

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is the difference between diamond cut and diamond clarity?
